Does Antillean ship to Cap Haitien?

Antillean Marine Shipping Corporation proudly announced their new service to Cap Haitien. After 50 years of shipping to Port-Au-Prince, the shipping company is adding a new bi-weekly service to Haiti's northernmost port. SC Line recently started their new service to Cap Haitien focused on heavy equipment and project cargo.

Are containerized generators reliable?

Years of use in the rental, oil and gas, mining and other heavy-duty industries have tested the reliability, usability and durability of our containerized generators. Our primary design challenges in developing this line of containerized generators were usability, reliability and functionality for the end user.

How does CTSA handle the port of Cap Haitien?

CTSA is fully equipped to handle any vessels that can enter the 29 ft draft Port of Cap Haitien. From the minute you reach the anchorage CTSA gets involved by sending out our assist tug to guide you to the berth. We have cranes available for all your cargo requirements.
